AMATEUR MEMBERSHIP AGREEMENT - ONLY FOR AMATEUR MEMBERSHIP APPLICANTS

Amateur membership is a classification primarily for people competing in AQHA shows. To be an amateur member, you must agree to abide by certain rules. Before submitting your application to AQHA, please carefully read the rules below to ensure you meet amateur eligibility. Application for amateur membership in American Quarter Horse Association ("the Association") shall become active only upon acceptance of this application by the Association. By submitting my application for amateur membership, I agree to and affirm the truth of each of the following statements: I have NOT within the previous five years:

- Shown, judged, trained or assisted in training a horse (whether or not a registered American Quarter Horse) owned by someone other than myself or an immediate family member for remuneration.
- Instructed another person in riding, driving, training or showing a horse for remuneration.
- Judged a horse show for remuneration or been an approved horse show judge of any kind (4-H, other breed, open show).
- Held a membership in a professional organization and competed professionally in the events I intend to compete in as an AQHA-approved amateur.

MEMBERSHIP AGREEMENT

Dues payments MAY BE deductible by members as an ordinary and necessary business expense; however, donations or gifts to the American Quarter Horse Association are not deductible as charitable donations for federal income tax purposes. Donations to the American Quarter Horse Foundation ARE tax deductible to the extent allowed by law. One dollar of your annual membership dues is designated as a subscription to America's Horse, AQHA's official member publication. Through payment of membership dues you acknowledge that membership in AQHA is voluntary, and that you agree to be bound by the terms and conditions of AQHA's Official Handbook of Rules and Regulations.
